

ces. David Campbell however moved up even further on his second run to win once more the British Championships with 255 (100,127) The English boys had been feeling rather cocky at beating the Scots for the first time in years at Perth, but the Scots once more have the laugh on us. Close behind came Paul Farrant 104, 140, a valiant effort, but not quite enough. Then came Keith White, 115, broken paddle - and a second Scot, Jack McLean, with 120, C. And in fifth place Jim Barbour, 125, 140. Well up too was Oliver Cock, 7th with 133, 148.

The Ladies' Event was won deservedly by Heather Meakin with 433, (100, 123). For Heather has been winning steadily during the season, and justifiably the honour of the National Event has at last been her reward. But her rival Mary Farrant (102,C) was not far behind, capsizing on the fall on her first run. Third was Joan Millard (125, 150).

In the Team Event, first place went to the British A (Farrant, Goodman, Bill Crockett) with 776. Second was the B team (Barbour, Horsman, Ron Crockett) with 850, and the Royal CC (Lucas, Pegram, Taylor) third, 940.
